Kata Pengantar

Puji syukur kehadiran Allah Swt. atas limpahan rahmat dan karunia-Nya sehingga penyusun dapat menyelesaikan buku antologi puisi ini dengan baik dan tepat waktu.

Buku antologi puisi ini merupakan kumpulan puisi karya mahasiswa prodi Sastra Inggris angkatan 2018, yang ditujukan untuk memenuhi tugas akhir pada mata kuliah Creative Writing. Penyusun sangat berterima kasih atas bantuan dan kerja sama yang baik dari seluruh mahasiswa.

Judul buku “No Words, No Emotions” ini kami pilih karena mengandung makna ketiadaan kata-kata akan menekan perasaan yang ada pada diri manusia, namun kata-kata yang ada dirasa tak pernah cukup dalam mencakup semua emosi yang dirasakan manusia, lain halnya jika kata-kata itu sudah terangkai berupa puisi maka pada hakikatnya keresahan, kebahagiaan, harap, cinta, kehilangan dan pelbagai rasa lainnya dapat diungkapkan dan mengekal menjadi sebuah karya.

Different

Afuni Nur Safitri

See the way that we are the two different
I am as little fish through the wide ocean without boat
Thinking as crazy bird about the way of ignoring me
Surely, I am extremely different to be here
Such as loyal slave who be with you every single moment
Freaking wait until destiny let me out
Knowing why? Because I am different
I am different to be here, very different

It's Over

Hardina Kurniati

When the moon appears
As a lantern in the dark
At that time your figure crossed my mind
Until it made me unconsciously drifted off in sadness

One by one I rearrange our series of stories
But instead I found a white sheet with lots of black spots
The happiness I wish for Even sadness and scratches that I found

If you know
I will always be like that
Wherever I miss you

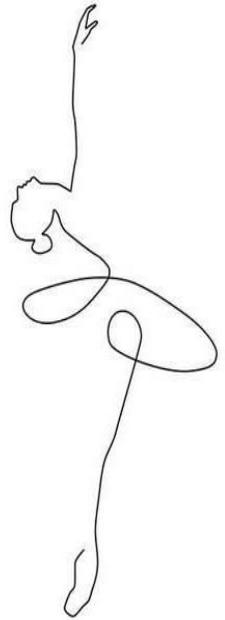

I will describe our togetherness in it
Wish you felt the same love as me
We can avoid this separation
I don't have to be tortured and shackled
In this own feeling

Look at me

Iga Razani

I've been thinking to see you again
Perhaps we've been back at fourth eternally
Since yesterday I've been thinking once again
I don't think I should do this any longer
    I will say it to you
    Please come to my meaningless daily life
    There are a lot of things that I want to do together with you
    Whilst waiting for you to get used to it in life
I'm the one who found your love
I will spread into your heart
In the meantime, if all of your hearts melt
It's like I'm dreaming
    Please, look at me like that
    The night that I couldn't sleep alone, reminded me of you
    I prayed on the day that the stars twinkled
    If I can meet you once again

Please, look at me like that

I'll instantly running to wherever you are

Somehow we will run across each other

And I will spread into your heart

It feels like I'm dreaming please,

Look at me like that

Again my heart is shaking

And I'm the one who found your love

Doubt

Khoirunnisa

I have been in love, you know
But I can't tell. I can't tell
It's Juliet meeting Romeo, or am I playing Belle?
Cause it's been fear and ghost
Rather than tragic fairytale.

I have been in love, you know
But I can't tell
I can't tell the world I can't give it a show
I can't play Juliet with no Romeo.

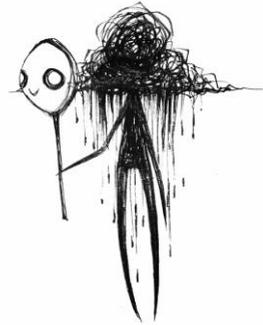

Fakhri Isnawan

If there's a reason to be alive
I will ask an explanation
Happy will come after me
But sad come instead

Lucky to know you
At least I know you well
I love you
But, farewell

When You Asked me Who You Are

Mumtazah Al-Ilmah

I'm a woman
Who tries to write her name in your heart

I'm a woman
Who doesn't know where her heart will be anchored

I'm a woman
Who wishes her name in your pray is recited

I'm a woman
Who waits you every day without tired

I'm a woman
Who her feet toward you are stepped

I'm just a woman who chooses you to be loved

Turn Back

Cindi Selfians

How far I go
You call me back
How long I never saw
You let me know

Let it growth
That's you did
You let the reminisced
In the belly off earth
Let them dissolved along with

Here you were waiting
When the time separating
How far apart are we?
Turn back home!

Till it flows
Maintain proper roles
We met by accident
We lost in though
Feels like having each other
You are home and eternally home

Beautiful Sin

Sheylla heti

Smile full of charm
Running through the meadow
Sing the spring song
Enthusiastic to taste death
Want you as big as swapping everything

Beside you, even able to make the country hate.
Standing by your side will get in trouble
I protect what I am trying to protect
You just need to stand beside me

Holding hands maybe no problem
You are medicine in death
Your existence is also a parasite of life
But I choose to keep you

Punishment await after death
Even though God will throw me into hell
And through the long road of hell
Beautiful woman that i met
That woman choose me
Even though we are in the same circle

Disappointment

Tanti Winarsih

How sweet love of a lover
When it appears in verses
How sweet love of a lover
Flickering stars at their eyes

How sweet love of a lover
It turns rain to a bright day
How sweet love of a lover
Spreading warm whenever it say

I used to believe words of poet
Thousand love stories I have read
Instead of sweetness I got from it
It led me to high speed sadness sled

A Little Thing We Did Not Know

Janitra F.S.

The moon wants her sun,
But the sky torn them apart
The moon tries to get her sun,
But the stars never let it happened
The moon tries harder,
But she runs out of time
She almost gets her sun,
But the earth needs her more

Little thing we don't know
The moon is as cold as snow
And all the things that she drowns
Is remaining a crown

I wish I was Heather

Meivilana Stela Sani

Dear heather. . .

I found myself glued to your Tik-Tok,
And to your Instagram profile.
I scrolling scrolling all of your beauty.
No imperfections I can seem to copy.
Your face is perfect.
Your body is ideal.
There are many things about you,
I wish I could steal.

I often look at myself in the mirror,
Envious of the way you were made.
And said "I wish I have that look"
Sometimes I pretend having the way that you look,
To help my insecure heart
But trying to come up with this thing in my head,
It doesn't make me a prize.

In fact tearing you down in my mind has only left me more insecure and empty inside.

I'm sorry for letting the way you were created,

Reflect my internal worth.

How ungrateful I am to forget my creator

Who has called me beautiful before the day of my birth.

So, now I will just smile at your beauty

Without letting it affected mine.

As girl we deserve more than competition

Because that is not how true beauty defined.

Darkest Thoughts

Mitha Nurdinia

I am sick!

I am sick of being unwanted

I am tired!

I am tired of being unaccepted

Some people are trying to break me down

Thinking they are cool but I am already done

It sucks when nobody knows your worth

But having no power to defer your growth

Every time I look at myself as I am the worst

While seeing others there living with their purpose

I know it for sure,

Comparing myself would never be enough

But I can't deny it's hard to even laugh

Have you ever felt like you are losing yourself?

On the way you are trying to find another half

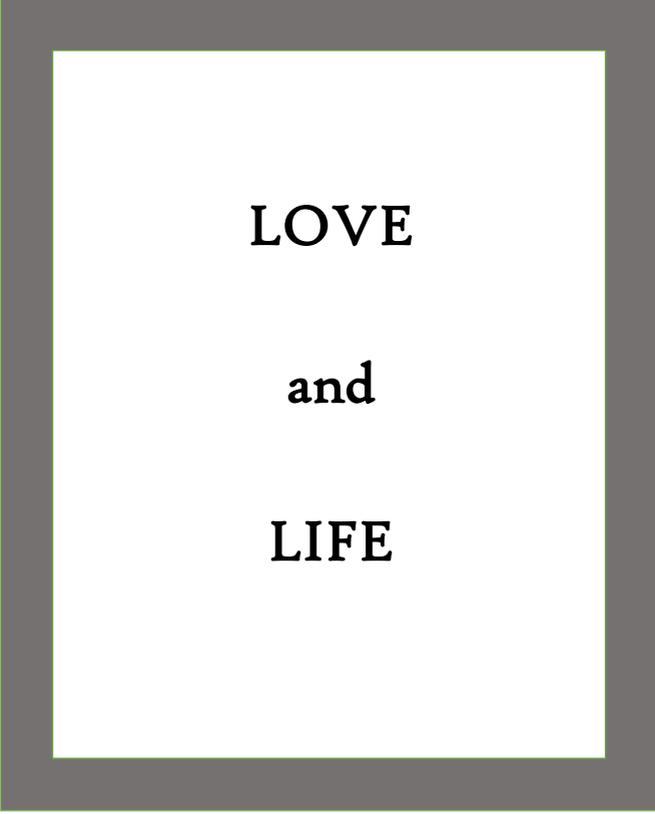

Have you ever realized the scars are never faded?

Because you put them there behind your hard-headed
I felt it all, but I refused to admit it

Stories and worries are always there along the way
Some just my excuses for slowly going away
Wasting my time to escape from the role I play
While all I have is myself at the end of the day

Life ahead seems really hard to be passed
Yet I don't have reason to stay in my past
Is there still any road to walk on?
Is there a bond for me to hold on?
Not sure, but I still try to believe
My darkest thoughts, never wanted to leave

Of your smile and Laugh

Murti Sari Kurnia

In the time you hide the word
Choose silent for much questions
There with smile, tried to erase my worries
Sent me in art of hiding the cries

Your Smile is curse
For me that fail for answered
Laugh of yours is culture
Those were save in every picture

I stand in place of abstract
Lost the light scene
Show the face of sore
Stuck too long in dark scene
Where the clue for identity
Which made me lost a precious memory
Of remember the destiny
O! happened for everybody
The anybody

String of Mind

Diani Amalia Putri

I see a beautiful thin string inside a chaotic mind
A thing that I barely can witness
Sparkling and flying around like the fireflies
Blooming like the wildflowers,
Filling in the empty space
I see a ghost-like figure drawing the brightest

Taking her into a wonderful world
Turning the black and the white into a colorful isle
Build her a house of she would never escape
Even if someone shows her the track of the map

I heard his words lyrically pulling her off the abyss
Through the melody he unfold the memories
The laughs, the tears, and the friends he brought Warms her up like the sun

Then the laughter bursts
How fool she was, whispers the cruel
Cutting off the string

Matahari Hati

Andik Gigih Palaguna

Wahai Matahariku

Engkau slalu ada untukku

Engkau juga berkorban demi diriku

Rela berkorban dengan apa yang melekat pada dirimu

Dikala diri ini lelah berfikir tentang “siapakah aku?”

Wahai matahariku

Aku banyak berfikir tentang siapakah aku ini

Untuk apa aku diciptakan, mengapa aku hidup dan terlahir

Pertanyaan tersebut muncul tiba-tiba di pikiran ini

Akupun merenung dan menyendiri karena hal ini membuatku terpikir

Kehadiranmu wahai matahariku Adalah jawaban dari semua kegelisahanku

Ya, jawabannya ada padamu

Jawaban yang hanya bisa dilihat melalui Qolbu

Senangmu, susahmu, sakitmu, lelahmu, taatmu

Ialah jawaban yang tepat untukku

Laksana hujan dimusim kemarau
Laksana kesatria yang berhasil mengusir pengacau

Wahai matahariku
Engkau sangat tahu tentang sifatku
Engkau tahu aku seorang pemalu

Tapi engkau ajarkan aku agar bisa mengontrol itu
Suatu ketika aku terlepas dari ikatan malu
Hingga membuatmu marah dan sedih akan tingkahku
Laksana kuda terlepas dari tali pengikatnya
Namun, engkau tak pernah memutuskan tali hubungan kita

Wahai matahariku
Hal ini membuatku bertanya, mengapa bisa?
Kuberanikan diri bertanya padamu
Engkupun menjawab tanpa ragu kepadaku
Memang segala hal kalau dipikirkan itu cukup melelahkan, tapi itu sudah menjadi kewajibanku dihadapan Tuhan.

Loneliness

Fitri Yuliana

I feel as lonely as the clouds
Remembering your footsteps
I feel the cold between all the colds hugging my body in the middle of the steppes

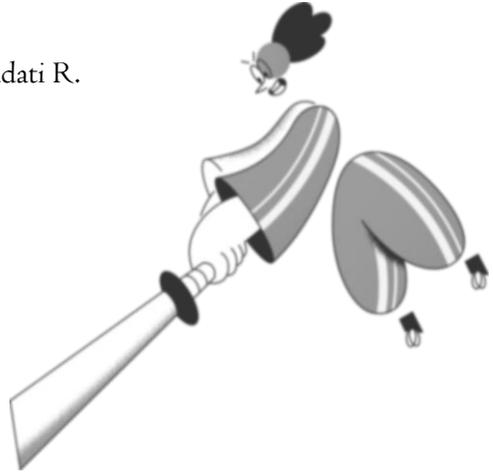

Tell me how to get through it
So I can reach you back
But, you should not care for it cause I'm gonna make it back

Uncontrollable Life

Nazila Chiladati R.

Everyone has their own battle
To fight, just like everyone
Has their own battle to lose.
To win this war called life brightest smile on her face

Nobody knows how their day
Is going to unravel in life
Some days are trap
Some days are wonderful
Or some days are just numb.
And most days are mix of all of that.

A Piece of Myself

Nila Alfarah

Trying to live life was no easy
Spend the day by day for nothing
Chased by time; Haunted by fear
Yet, it does not even happen
Drop the tears

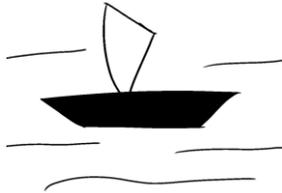

Drop the tears
And beat my mess
Through the heavy rain
But every time I rise
I talk to myself, I'll survive

Because,
A small thing does matter
A little words does matter
For my life

Love

Nurlisna Amalia Gempita

To all of those who have lost themselves,
To whatever monster, at some point in their life
I know the journey back to yourself, can be hard
But trust me,
You are worth every effort

Dreams

Riski Sugiyarti

Like waves that never tire of fighting towards the Shire

It's like a struggle for life and a dreams

There is not losing in a struggle

There is not giving up on a dreams

Success and failure complement each other

If you're tired, rest but never stop

Life goes on in time

Embrace your dreams like the sun that never gets tired of accompanying the earth

Fight for the dream you want

The Day Comes

Yeni Purwasih

Who will be the winner?
When the mountains don't want to live anymore
When the sea gets tired to be on its jar
And the fish were left homeless
Who will stay on the throne?
Is it a human with arrogance?
Is it an animal by instinct?
Or plants that only hope for a little air?

No one! Everything is the same! Will drown!

Humans arrogantly

Animals can no longer use their instincts

And plants? It doesn't exist!

The sea will manifest like your arrogance that you always glorify, drown you in!

The mountain which Edelweiss you once stole can no longer stand

The sea you stained red on you and shed its water

Wait for the Almighty, whose loyalty you betrayed said "this is the time"

Then there's nothing you can say but mercy!

You hope forgiveness! what else forgiveness you want?!

Everything has warned you!
Through an animal that comes asking for food
Through whatever happens to you in life
But you are indifferent, then what?
The time has come
Your world is lost!
When the sea you used to see as water, now turns into fire
There is no mountain that you say is cool
Then the animal you tortured screamed at you
"Just put him in there, he deserves it, even to the little me human is not willing to give their heart, how about the Creator, the Great and Noble!"
That's when you perish, but not really
You were whipped over and over
You're stabbed, then recovered, but over and over again
And all your mercy is meaningless.

Monster of Teenager

Adelia Fridha Iffani

Anxious, insecurities, procrastination
Problematic of teenager had
No one calming their mind
Feel alone Just monsters accompany them
Wind dance crazily look at them
Time laugh when it passed
Mind crowded
Sometimes
Heart freeze like snow

Know nothing
Still struggling

Hidden

Anisa Khoirun Fauziah

The wheel must go on
But life mustn't rely on
The birds must fly to the wind
But us mustn't trapped in the spin
Life once, chance once
Stop once, thanks once
The world wouldn't separate
For whom want to appreciate
Notes of praise change wound of stubborn,
Lift them raise reveal something hidden,
Lift them raise give us more often
The stars of the soul, the peace of road to be taken

Hey, not bad!

Eko Mulyono

The horizon was change to blue
The rain is over, and the street was dry.
Hundreds of steps leave me again on the edge.
I don't wanna leave, I wanna stay.

Everything has gone, and I am alone
No need to be others, no need to be clown.
Leave all the burden in our shoulders
Alone is better than pretend to be others.

Black Space

Naba Maulida Lumaksita

Am I ready?
Coming to black space
Hear my own voice
Blank without ray
Just me and I

Other sure that I,
Imminent to be corpse
Coffin calls me into it
Is it my home,
For the rest of eternity?
No one can I talk with
No one can hear me
Unless I

Yet, I wasn't ready
I want still,
Breathing the air
Live it up
To serve the Lord
Provision for immortality

Then I wake up
From my hyper sleep
And Lord still give me a chance.

Alter Ego

Nabilatulfikrah Shanelia Zikri

So tell me, how much is it worth?
Of going through all the pain,
From reversing those wounds to memories?
Knowing the risks, still foolishly trying to withstand
Casting light on dark fears
Only illuminated by several veiled hints

Mirrors never lie, since the reflection within isn't myself.
When will I get it right?
I don't know—won't know. It's a mystery.
Whoever said it was easy, never knew what they bargained for.

The Great Battle

Fauhan Khairunisa

Crying the babies in the mother's arms
Flowing the tears of the younger members
It was impossible for the men to see their wife
But the arrogants were still wandering here and there

They said the enemies could bring no harms
Refusing to open their ears like we were strangers
They are still gonna be arrogants until the end of their life
And made our legion were suffering and falling down everywhere

The earth became darker
The Great Battle would be bigger
The warriors should become stronger
And we should do more devoted prayer

NATIONALIST

and

NATURE

My Nation

Desti Yuni Astiwi

My Nation is fragile.

My Nation burned down the corporation

My Nation have been hurt by corruption

Justice is dead!

Justice has been denied by a corporation

Justice is gone from the motherland

Freedom became a dream!

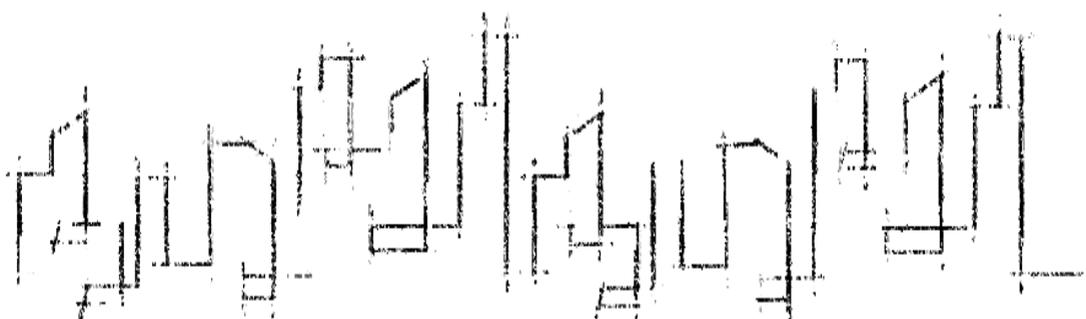

Freedom in the naked regulation

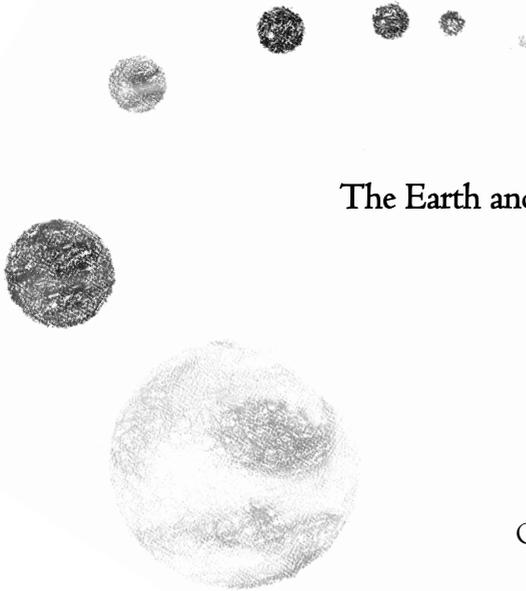

Welfare is the province of the motherland

O stakeholder of wisdom!

Don't hide behind words of justice, freedom, prosperity

Mother nature is fragile

The Earth and Neptune

Irfa Luthfia Rahmani

The Earth gazes at Neptune
With it's sparkle eyes,
On a frame with no partitions.
Beautiful! Everyone knows.
Then the Earth realizes,
It is far beyond the universe.
It feels like minutes, but it is hours.
And the time still flies.
Hours and hours,
It becomes farther and farther,
The interface finally disappears.
So how it survives?

Famous Corner

Nikmatur Rofiqoh

A famous corner
Standing gallantly
Shining like the moon
Become the source, Become the center, Become a goal
Worth it for other dots
However, the intruders came
It is many and easily becomes many Until disappearing light in that corner
The corner like rose that was originally fragrant
Now turned into polluted
The dots started to disappear
Only God knows how long?
Only the answered of prayer can be expected

The Sound of Truthful Droplets

M. Aditya Nugraha

Hark

The sound of truthful droplets
They show reflected sadness of nature being Nature where any lifes deserve them fates
Cheers, dance, drink and singing
The place that be a heaven for who was dead
Holy land for who was living
Yet It will not last forever; them sad
It will be a greedy palace to human being

Hark

The voice of the willingly trees; Killed and die became lumbers
Against them lands! The devil woods! With countless numbers
For whom harm and dance, them happier
For whom protect the lands, them suffer
Those invaders! Them rejoice! For words above the papers with black tints
Steal, loot, burn, any awful that them gain for more sins
The dry ground poisons folk's life; The blazing light burns them skins

The dark sky haunts them eyes; The grimy air fulfils them veins

Hark

No need to promise them the light

If y'all only could for bring the darkness

The lands that them care for child

Y'all give to those inglorious basterds

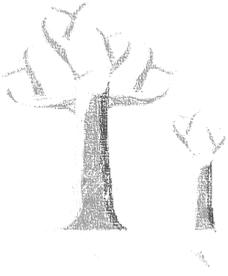

Let the fathers proud them lands with right

Let the mothers suckle them children in happiness

Without destruction them could be sight

Without sorrow for nature sadness

Is Nobody Know How I Feel?

Siti Nurhayati

Oh, is nobody know how i feel?
My hairs are cut off
My skin was flake off
And some body is changing myself
Just for the sand stone for building house
Just for an empty land
That will planted high buildings
Just for an empty land
That's will planted big factory
That flowering pollution flower
I learn to grin and bear it, but my heart?
Is no body know how i feel?
